The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Class W (USD) Fixed Distributing (ISIN IE000U2ITBN3)
Calamos Growth and Income Fund (the 'Fund'), a sub-fund of GemCap Investment Funds (Ireland) PLC (the 'Company')

The Fund is managed by Ascender Fund Partners (Ireland) Limited which acts as manager to the Company.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund seeks total return through capital appreciation and current income. The Fund invests primarily in a diversified portfolio of equities (including American and Global depositary receipts), convertible and non-convertible fixed-income securities (with a maximum of up to 10% in structured notes) and directly or indirectly in eligible financial indices.

The Investment Manager seeks to invest (directly or indirectly) across different asset types and is unconstrained by market capitalization, sector allocation, investment theme and allocation across asset classes. Under normal market conditions, the Fund intends to invest a majority in U.S. securities and up to 25% of its net assets in non-U.S. securities (securities of issuers incorporated outside of the U.S.). Subject to the investment restriction set out in the Prospectus, the U.S. and non-U.S. securities in which the Fund invests shall be listed, traded or dealt in on any Regulated Market worldwide (with the exclusion of Russia).

The Fund will not invest more than 20% of its net assets in Emerging Markets securities. The Fund may also invest in Rule 144A securities (range between 15% and 45% of the Fund's net assets) and the Fund may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management and/or hedging purposes and/or investment purposes (limited to currency forwards, futures, options, warrants, interest-rate swaps). The remaining assets may be invested in eligible collective investment schemes (no more than 10% of its net assets), cash, money market instruments and cash equivalent securities, such as commercial paper, certificates of deposit or treasury bills and/or do so pending investment or re-investment or, at any time, for temporary defensive purposes.

The Fund uses the S&P 500 Index and the ICE BofA All U.S. Convertible EX Mandatory Index. as comparator benchmarks to compare performance. The Fund is actively managed and is not constrained by any benchmark.

For Accumulating classes, any income or gains of the Fund net of expenses will be accumulated and reinvested into the net assets of the Fund.

For Distributing classes, any income less expenses earned will be distributed in accordance with the distribution policy in the Prospectus.

Investors can redeem shares in the Fund on every business day meaning a day on which banks in Ireland and on which the New York Stock Exchange, are open for normal business subject to the 'Dealing Days for Subscription and Redemptions' the 'Issue of Shares' and 'Redemption of Shares' section of the Supplement. For full details please refer to the 'Investment Objective and Policy', 'Issue of Shares' and 'Redemption of Shares' sections of the Supplement and 'The Shares' section of the Prospectus.

Recommendation: The Fund is suitable for investors that have a moderate to high risk tolerance, long-term time horizon, and must be able to accept temporary capital losses due to the potentially volatile nature of the underlying assets, therefore, investment in the Fund may not be appropriate for investors planning to withdraw their money within 3 to 5 years.

Risk and Reward Profile

lower potential risk/rewards higher potential risk/rewards

The indicator above illustrates the position of this Fund on a standard risk/ reward category scale.

This indicator is based historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may change over time.

The lowest category does not mean investment is 'risk free'. This indicator is not a measure of the risk that you may lose the amount you have invested.

The Fund is categorised as category 5 as it as it mostly invests in convertibles, equities and debt securities, the combination of which may lead to higher levels of price fluctuation than if the Fund invested solely in debt securities.

The following are risks materially relevant to the Fund which are not adequately captured by the indicator:

> There may be insufficient buyers or sellers to allow the Fund to sell or buy certain types of securities readily;

> Convertibles expose the Fund to the risk the issuer of the debt security portion of the security may fail to meet its obligations as well as the performance of the underlying stock into which it can be converted;

> Investments in emerging markets may expose the Fund to more social, political, regulatory and currency risks than securities in developed markets;

> Derivatives may fluctuate in value rapidly and certain derivatives may introduce leverage which may result in losses that are greater than the original amount invested;

> A party with whom the Fund contracts for securities may fail to meet its obligations or become bankrupt which may expose the Fund to a financial loss; and > Structured Notes expose the Fund to the market risk of the underlying security and Counterparty Risk.

> For non-US Dollar classes, while the Fund may attempt to hedge against currency fluctuations, there can be no guarantee that the value of such classes will not be affected by the fluctuations in the US Dollar against the relevant currency.

For a more detailed explanation of the risks, please refer to the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus and the Supplement.
